Madam,

In reference to the lantern slides for the illustration of your books of poems - We enclose your manuscript list having been carefully through it. You will find all the numbers marked against those which we are able to include in the list of slides at one shilling each, the subjects marked NO cannot be had in the form of one shilling slides, many of them not at all.

Mr. Anderson is the only publisher with whom we deal, who issues slides of his photographs at 1/- each, therefore it is in his catalogue that we shall have to seek the subjects you want, for that purpose, we send you a copy of Mr. Anderson's complete catalogue and shall be glad if you will now go through it in order to finish your list; and, when you have added such numbers as you think desirable, please return the list to us and we will make a duplicate list, one for you and the other for ourselves.

Yours faithfully,

W. A. Mansell H.

Dear Sir

May I send for your consideration the first small volume (Books 1 & 2, about 100 pages) of a metrical version of the Gospel History? It will, in fact, be a life of our Lord in verse and I am encouraged to so hold an undertaking by remembering that the Tate & Brady version of the Psalms, which has little claim to rank as poetry, created a great religious revival not only in England but on the continent.

Book 1 deals with The Holy Infancy, Book 2 with The Novitiate and the verse is interesting because of the surpassing interest of the subject.

I have adhered closely to the text & have avoided carefully all purple passages and other foreign matter.

I think it might be well to bring out this little volume for the Christmas season with perhaps a dozen photographs from great pictures of the Nativity, etc.

I do not know whether the work would fall into line with your publications but will send the first volume of the M.S. if you care to see it.

I am, truly yours,

C.M. Mason

Sir

I should like to submit to you the N.S. of a work which may turn out to be of some importance; at any rate it should be practically alone in the field & treat of a subject that interests everyone.

I am writing, under the title of Eccle Rex, a life of Christ in verse which I should like to have brought out in smaller, say, half-a-dozen small volumes published year by year. The first volume is nearly ^{now} nearly ^{is} in three books treating of The Holy Infancy, The Ministry, & The Opening of the Ministry. For the order of poems I am following the Gospel History in the Words of the Revised Version arranged by the Rev. C. C. James - the most successful harmony I have been able to discover. The work is, for the most part in blank verse, with more or less lyrical passages when the subject seems to admit of such treatment. I have endeavoured to treat the second subject with great simplicity & reserve, avoiding too much local colour, imagery & such like devices; & it seems to me that the surpassing interest of the subject carries on the narrative in a way that should keep up the profound attention of the reader. This part of treatment appears to open up new aspects of our Lord's work & to bring out in a surprising way the method of His teaching, & this, not from any merit in the verse beyond faithfulness & reserve.
